ABOUT CHS

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

CHS STORE

Become part of the rich and colorful heritage of the unconquered and unconquerable Chickasaw Nation by joining the Chickasaw Historical Society (CHS).

CHS takes an active role in the preservation and promotion of Chickasaw heritage and culture. Your CHS membership allows us to place historical markers, publish journals, purchase artwork, fund activities, produce videos, help with language preservation and much more! With your support, we can accomplish this and so much more.

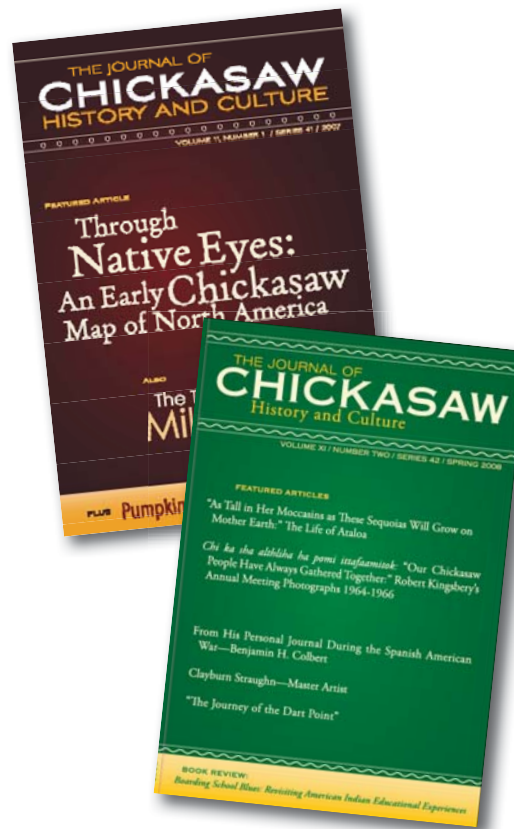

CHS was established by tribal law on April 15, 1994. Since that time, our board and society members have worked toward the mission statement of "promoting, preserving and protecting our culture and family traditions." The Chickasaw community is important to our board of directors.

SHARING & LEARNING

Some additional ways we work within our communities are listed in the following bullets. CHS:

- Researches and documents historical information
- Profiles achievements of our citizens
- Promotes tribal arts
- Educates people in our language
- Encourages archival and museum donations

CHS takes pride in our ability to share information with other organizations. We stretch many miles into other states and even other countries, providing cultural resources that ultimately benefit Chickasaws.

Included with your membership is a one-year subscription to The Journal of Chickasaw History and Culture, which is published bi-annually. The newly reformatted journal features articles by noted historians about Chickasaw subjects.

Discounts on items for sale, coupons for Chickasaw Nation products and other benefits are also available to members.

We are pleased to offer several products that can enhance your knowledge or show your support for the Chickasaw people and CHS.

The following are just a few of the many items available for purchase:

- Chikasha Holisso Holba (a Chickasaw Picture Book)
- A Talking Chickasaw Dictionary
- The Boiling Springs United Methodist Church Choctaw Hymn CD
- And much more!

For your convenience, we accept Visa, MasterCard and Discover credit cards for either membership fees or for purchases made through the CHS store. Please call (580) 559-0773 for a complete product and price list of available items.
